

It's Alive! Situ8 Launches Blog
01/01/10

Situ8 has finally given in to the pressure and launched the company's very own blog. However, while we will share our thoughts at times, we wanted to use this as a place to showcase the insights and knowledge of people that we truly respect and admire. That is why the primary mission of Situ8's blog will be to feature interviews with experts & influencers from a variety of diverse industries.

Feel free to check back and see who we're talking to.
